

No to post office deregulation!!

Hey Harper, leave our post office alone. For years the post office has served us well, why mess it up like our forest services.

In the rural area's like I am in we have no other choice, and the post office has been good for us.

It seems that whatever the government touches they mess it up.

Diane Derbyshire

BC