

As a letter carrier, I believe privitization would definitely lower wages, increase our workload, downgrade our benefits, and give the public poorer service. My family has been in the Canada Post workforce for forty years and I think Canada Post is a strong, viable Corporation that has proved it can provide a great public service and still make a profit. Why Change a good thing?

Gordon Rudolph
BC